Internal resolution: JEF European Elections 2024 Campaign

JEF Europe,

- On the base of the timeline proposed during the Autumn 2022 Federal Committee in Prague;
- On the base of the input of the Executive Board and of its national sections;
- Taking into account the work of the Task Force European Elections 2024, established during the Autumn 2022 Federal Committee in Prague;
- Considering an inclusive preparatory process and the feedback gathered among JEFers.

JEF Europe,

1. Commits itself and its national EU sections to run the European Elections 2024 campaign as presented during the Spring 2023 Federal Committee in Malta;
2. Affirms that its Campaign for the European Elections 2024 will be flexible and inclusive, transnational and political. It will be kicked off in May 2023 and it will last up to May 2024. The Campaign will include three main phases: I) Listening to the citizens; II) Engaging policymakers; III) Bringing people to vote;
3. Will use, during the campaign, a multilingual online platform prepared together with the partners of Make.org;
4. States that the name of the Campaign is “EurHope for the Future”, short. “EurHope”.
